

Job Title: QA Technician
Reports To: General Ripe Operations Manager
Department: Quality Assurance
Location: Atlanta, Georgia

Job Summary

This position will help document and record essential quality activities and help communicate any relevant information as needed. This individual will be part of the Mission QA team that strives to meet or exceed all regulation and lead the industry in Quality. In addition, this position involves a combination of visual monitoring of various aspects of the FDC operations and physical testing of product.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

The QA Technician will be responsible for the following:

- ❖ Conduct routine visual inspections on the product
- ❖ Sample and inspect raw and finished product to ensure conformance to standards
- ❖ Initiate and complete aging, shipping, receiving and grading reports
- ❖ Must be a motivated, self-starter with good people and communication skills
- ❖ Create and complete experiments to test packaging, product and other elements of quality
- ❖ Set up stations and equipment to measure quality specifications
- ❖ Test product for oil content, temperature and internal/external defects
- ❖ Maintain a clean and orderly workstation
- ❖ Communicate issues to leads and supervisors
- ❖ Lift 48-pound containers from stacked pallets
- ❖ Perform other duties as required

Minimum Qualifications & Requirements

- ❖ Able to work in a fast paced, dynamic, high stress environment
- ❖ Ability to communicate with supervisors and coworkers in a team environment
- ❖ Able to read markings on boxes of product
- ❖ Able to work according to food facility regulations
- ❖ High school diploma or equivalent

Working Conditions:

- ❖ Fast paced cold and wet environment
- ❖ Food facility requires food safe behavior

- ❖ Utilize ladders, computer tablets and other tools to monitor quality
- ❖ Work in cold conditions from 38°F to 50°F